

Execute the following steps in the manufacturing module:

- Create a warehouse stock item - finished product
- Create the warehouse items of the individual parts, which shall be product inputs
- Create a bill of material from the current items
- Create a production order
- In the production order, post a finished product to the warehouse, and write-off individual parts from the warehouse